Comments: The Forest Service should exclude all designated Wildernesses from its proposed burning plans for the Sequoia and Sierra National Forests. This is the only way to comply with the Wilderness Act. Federal agencies should comply with federal law.

The following wilderness areas are at stake: Ansel Adams, Dinkey Lakes, John Muir, Kaiser, Kiavah, Monarch, South Sierra, Dome Land, Jennie Lakes, and Golden Trout.

Your agency should allow natural, lightning-caused fire to play its ecological role in wilderness areas.
