Comments: I urge the Forest Service to exclude all of the designated Wildernesses from its proposed burning plans for the Sequoia and Sierra National Forests in order to comply with the Wilderness Act. Some of America's most loved Wildernesses with some of the oldest trees are at stake including the Ansel Adams, Dinky Lakes, John Muir, Kaiser, Kaivah, Monarch, South Sierra, Dome Land, Jenny Lakes, and Golden Trout Wildernesses. The agency should instead allow natural, lightening-caused fire to play its ecological role in Wilderness on the Sequoia and Sierra National Forests.

These Forests are the lungs of our country, that help to filter out pollution from the air.
