

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/17/2023 6:55:31 PM

First name: John

Last name: Livingston

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I have hiked extensively in most of the public lands in California. Wilderness areas should be left alone to burn from lightening but no man-induced or management programs should be allowed. I believe we are on the wrong track to reduce fires on our public lands. We should be spending our dollars on preventing fires and closing forests when conditions warrant. Please no management in wilderness areas.