

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/17/2023 9:28:14 PM

First name: Ross

Last name: Morgan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing in support of the PARC act. The notion that modern climbers are interested in turning wilderness areas into bolted 'sport climbing' areas is false. The existing policy and ethics of hand-drilling bolts only where natural protection is unavailable already limits the number of permanent anchors. Moreover, fixed hardware accounts for a minuscule percentage of the overall impact of recreation in the wilderness. Thank you for consideration.