Comments: It is utter folly to interfere with nature especially in designated wilderness areas.

The USA is so fortunate to have this kind of habitat still in existence , I would be so happy if we had a small fraction of the wonderful old forests and hills that you have.

Please leave them to be as nature intended and let the wild be wild and unadulterated.

Man to his folly has made his mark on too many precious places please treasure what you have and do not seek to burn or otherwise alter this wonderful landscape!
