

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/23/2023 1:37:12 PM

First name: Evan

Last name: Nathan

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are a necessary and harmless component of climbing. Without them, the amount of people climbing would drastically decrease (with a negative effect on tourism), and those who remained in the sport would be considerably less safe due to a lack of protection. NFS lacks the staff to individually inspect and approve each anchor in a reasonable timeframe. Fixed anchors should be considered innocent until proven guilty. Please revise the language of this document to reflect that.