

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/23/2023 2:29:39 PM

First name: Alicia

Last name: Paddock

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As a climber, mountaineer, hiking guide, and volunteer fire fighter and search and rescue, I realize that the placement of fixed bolts in climbing areas is critical not only for recreation in an environmentally safe and minimally-damaging way but also for rescue operations of hurt or lost climbers, hikers, etc. Subjecting fixed bolts to this new criteria of the Wilderness Act, while genuine in concept, is dangerous and impractical in practice.