

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/27/2023 9:49:36 PM

First name: Corinne

Last name: Martin

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think it's absurd to apply such stringent regulations on fixed protection, such as bolts for rock climbing. This will make an entire vibrant culture of rope climbing completely inaccessible, unless each bolted route is individually inspected under "Minimum Requirement Analysis" by federal investigators. Rock climbing should be allowed to carry on as it currently does, and as it has for countless years before!!!