

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/29/2023 7:54:33 PM

First name: Nicholas

Last name: Koch

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This decision would upend decades of precedent and negatively impact guides, their clients, and recreational climbers in dozens of wilderness areas across the US. The appropriate use of fixed anchors facilitates safe and efficient climbing, and should not be viewed as an "installation."

Sustainable access policies without this sort of heavy-handed rule change are possible. I support the bipartisan Protecting America's Rock Climbing Act and America's Outdoor Recreation Act as examples of this.