

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 11/30/2023 12:42:42 AM

First name: Aaron

Last name: Jones

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Climbing is an important part of outdoor recreation and should be protected with the passage of this legislation. As a lifelong climber, guide and guide service owner my livelihood and personal recreation both depend on access to public lands and the use of climbing specific hardware. I have personally witnessed the climbing management program evolve in Yosemite from a one man show to a much larger entity in a very popular park. I support this legislation and appreciate the opportunity to comment on the process.