

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/19/2023 6:24:45 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am against this legislation as a climber and a lover of the outdoors. Anchors and rappel stations are needed for safe climbing and pitons left behind have become a part of climbing history and almost a permanent part of certain routes. Please don't go chopping bolts and removing pitons. Let climbers climb at their own risk and continue to use the fixed pieces that have been there for decades. Thank you.