

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 12/30/2023 3:26:15 PM

First name: Roy

Last name: Munroe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The feed grounds are essential. Taking away a food source for such a massive herd of elk and forcing them to look elsewhere will affect so much more than the elk at hand. Elk are social creatures they are constantly going up to one another and smelling/licking one another. CWD will spread with or without the feed lot. If you take the feed lot away you are ensuring the demise of a large percentage of the herd that depends on it.