

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/3/2024 7:05:10 PM

First name: Kevin

Last name: Carrillo

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Dear U.S. Forest Service

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Thank you for your time.