

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/3/2024 9:24:26 PM

First name: Nicholas

Last name: Herrick

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Thank you,
Nick Herrick