

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/3/2024 9:33:32 PM

First name: Tristan

Last name: Sipe

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hi,

I strongly oppose this action by the USFS for the following reasons:

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Thank you for letting climbers continue to recreate as they always have.