

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/3/2024 11:37:03 PM

First name: Daniel

Last name: Conner

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources

Thank you for your time and understanding.

Daniel