

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2024 2:40:00 AM

First name: Tim

Last name: Henkels

Organization:

Title:

Comments:

I'm very concerned about your ideas about banning fixed anchors in wilderness areas. Climbers have had a long history of respecting the hand-drilling rules, and anchors in wilderness are self policies very carefully. And come on, let's be realistic! Can you really manage this anyways? Why pass an unenforceable law? Please don't do this, work with orgs like the access fund to make smart regulations instead of the path you are pursuing.