

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2024 5:25:19 PM

First name: Ana

Last name: Mezquita

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are an essential piece of climbers' safety system and are not prohibited "installations" under the Wilderness Act. Removing them will put future climbers in danger. In addition, it will take away from America's history of climbing and exploration in the outdoors.