

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2024 9:51:11 PM

First name: Michael

Last name: Bessette

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are a small, hardly noticeable addition to rock walls. Additionally, their removal undoes decades of precedent and puts safety at risk. I completely oppose their reclassification as unauthorized installations, but if they must be classified as such, please consider giving immunity to pre-existing anchors and permitting replacement of existing anchors when needed. This will allow safe anchors that have been set for years to continue to exist while preventing new encroachment.