

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2024 10:00:56 PM

First name: Keith

Last name: Horn

Organization:

Title:

Comments: There is so precious little old-growth forest left in the world, particularly in the United States. It is critical to ourselves and future generations that the remaining stands be fully protected as they are irreplaceable reserves of biodiversity and sequestration of carbon. I feel it is critical that there be a total moratorium on logging and other resource extraction in our remains stands of old growth forests.