Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/4/2024 11:13:19 PM First name: Thomas Last name: Hertenstein Organization: Title: Comments: USFS Comments Only:

Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources