Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/5/2024 4:09:54 AM First name: Alex Last name: Bond Organization: Title:

Comments: R estricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.