

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/5/2024 6:28:56 AM

First name: Jake

Last name: Mazzone

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hello,

Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources. As long as the environment is not being damaged, there should be no restrictions on bolted anchors outdoors. There are far worse problems for the USFS to devote their energy towards.

Thank you,

Jake