

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/5/2024 7:21:33 PM

First name: Christian

Last name: Lambert

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The proposed bolt prohibition is unsafe and unreasonable. Bolted anchors are critical for safe climbing, even when routes are ascended with removable trad gear. Even in those cases, bolted anchors are widely used for pitching out routes and for rappelling. These anchors exist across wilderness areas today and require replacement every few decades at minimum. Ending climbers' ability to use and maintain these bolts will be a huge loss to recreational users' safety.