

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2024 5:24:28 PM

First name: Melissa

Last name: Earl

Organization:

Title:

Comments: This comment is in reference to the draft policy that would restrict the establishment of new climbing routes to existing climbing opportunities. As it reads now, the language in the new policy will create confusion and limit the rich American tradition of climbing and exploration of America's beautiful wilderness areas. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources. Thank you!