

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/9/2024 9:45:55 PM

First name: Jon

Last name: Burnham

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are an essential component of safe climbing and have been part of our public land use and enjoyment for generations. The continued use in wilderness and other public lands should be maintained. They have very little impact on the wild character of wilderness areas.