

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2024 12:20:04 AM

First name: James

Last name: Peters

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As both a climber and a service aide at a California State Park famous for its climbing, I urge you not to go through with this proposal.

The power it gives is too broad and unchecked, allowing park management to remove and prohibit anchors with virtually no oversight. I have seen the negative impacts of anti-climbing administrations at Castle Rock State Park, and the positive impact of administrations that work hand-in-hand with climbers to address and maintain anchors and bolts.