

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/10/2024 5:12:57 PM

First name: Justin

Last name: Snarr

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are essential to the safety of climbing. They do not have a noticeable impact on the environment and encourage people to use our public lands. Using our public lands are the entire reason they exist. The climbing community has been responsible stewards of maintaining these anchors and respecting the land. If you change the status quo people will get hurt and die. Please reconsider this proposal