Comments: Erasing some of the most incredible climbing achievements ever done will not help preserve the wilderness or create harmony between the American people and the government. Many will use these anchors in spite of the rules putting themselves in extreme danger as the anchors degrade over time by not being replaced. The wilderness is not meant to be put into a box to preserve it. We as a people deserve to be out in it for our well being as a nation, responsibly.

This proposal is outrageous because it uses the strong arm of legislation to destroy the freedoms we fought for from the beginning.
