

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/11/2024 11:10:19 PM

First name: Brianna

Last name: Greene

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Limiting the creation of new climbing routes to only "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is impractical and will lead to uncertainty among both land managers and climbers. Policies for climbing on non-Wilderness lands should continue to allow for new anchors, unless specific analyses show that restrictions are necessary to safeguard cultural and natural resources.