

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/12/2024 12:01:20 AM

First name: David

Last name: Ossim

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I'm strongly opposed to the prohibition of fixed anchors and instead support their continued usage. They are essential safety equipment for appropriately recreating and enjoying our federal parks in a way that is increasingly valued by the public and only becoming more popular. The downsides of prohibiting fixed anchors are future safety issues, discouraging future visitors, and harming America's climbing history and legacy. The issues that this prohibition seeks to target can and should be solved in other ways.