

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/12/2024 2:29:21 AM

First name: Justin

Last name: Lagassey

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I believe bolted anchor systems reduce impact on the environment and allow a greater access and safety to participants. By judiciously placing bolted anchors, climbers do not have to resort to leaving webbing or 'tat' on trees or other gear as they descend a route. Bolted anchors allow better and safer ways to retreat from a rock climb if weather or participant ability is challenged without leaving gear behind. Please consider allowing the use of bolted anchor systems in wilderness areas.