

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/13/2024 2:17:03 PM

First name: Anon

Last name: Anon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are extremely low impact, but are essential for any climbing activity to continue. The proposed regulation implements unnecessary beaurocracy, and addresses an issue that simply does not exist. Additionally, this will make wilderness climbing much more dangerous: existing route information will become outdated as some anchors are removed, but climbers will still attempt these routes. There is no reason for this proposal to go forward.