

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/13/2024 5:00:00 AM

First name: Kathy

Last name: Osuch

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Our national forests were set aside to be wild places , to preserve the natural area for the benefit of all and future generations. Mining will threaten the water systems and the wildlife. I often travel to Arkansas due to the natural beauty, abundant rivers and camping. The forest service can't care for the land, serve people and allow mining. It's AGAINST everything a national forest is supposed to be.