

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/14/2024 5:30:34 PM

First name: Lucy

Last name: Wilcox

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Hi, fixed anchors are necessary for safe climbing practices, they are not prohibited under the wilderness act. Fixed anchor maintenance needs to be managed in a way that incentivizes safe anchor replacement and does not risk the removal of climbing routes. Please revise your climbing guidance to reflect the practice and precedent of the last 60+ years-that fixed anchors for climbing can be used, replaced, and maintained.

Lucy