

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/14/2024 9:05:46 PM

First name: Alan

Last name: Gross

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Fixed anchors are an essential piece of climbing safety systems, and prohibiting their use would greatly damage the ability to safely enjoy outdoor climbing areas, leading to more death and irreparable damage to our shared climbing legacy. Further, these policies will likely be unenforceable in practice, along with complications against climbing legislation currently moving through Congress. Please reevaluate and hold off on writing any policies that will ban fixed anchors!