

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2024 4:05:15 PM

First name: carl

Last name: alsup

Organization:

Title:

Comments: As you are not banning the activity, just the safety equipment, this will lead to serious injuries and likely deaths.

The climbing community, I think, overall has done a good job working with the national park service to place and use protection in our national lands. Area bans are respected. falcon nesting is actively discussed in the community, and transgressions to rules that were called out by public services have been amplified and enforced by our own community.