

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2024 5:15:45 PM

First name: Noah

Last name: Havlik

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the installation of anchors (bolts, pins, webbing, etc) will add confusion to the interactions of land managers and climbers. Climbers should be allowed to maintain the current trajectory of installing anchors for safety unless it directly impacts cultural heritage or a natural resource. Restricting anchors will only increase the risk to climbers that will continue to climb, as well as well as increase demands and risks of SAR operations nation wide.