

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2024 7:08:56 PM

First name: Kirsten

Last name: Ruen

Organization:

Title:

Comments: The prohibition of new anchors on USFS land threatens the safety of climbers. Fixed anchors ensure efficiency and lesser chance of error. If passed, this proposal would threaten the reliability of previously set anchors, as it would be prohibited to replace them. Climbing in many areas of the US would be rendered obsolete where top-outs are not an option and descents as dangerous or even impossible.