

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2024 11:47:55 PM

First name: Megan

Last name: Schick

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I understand that there needs to be limits and regulations for bolting in wilderness areas yet prohibiting bolts altogether is not the right move. Many climbers, like myself do not, and do not plan on trad climbing and without bolts we would not be able to climb in these areas. Bolted routines allow climbers to get into the sport in a much safer way than trad climbing. Please reconsider prohibiting bolts as it will hurt many communities including climbers.