

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/16/2024 11:56:06 PM

First name: Brock

Last name: Burrier

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I think elk feed grounds are crucial to not just elk herds but mule deer herds also. If the elk cannot get feed at these feed sites they will be forced to go to other locations which will most likely displace deer. I think it is a good idea, and scientifically and biologically sound to keep the elk feeding grounds open. Thank you for taking the time to read my comment.