

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/17/2024 2:27:02 AM

First name: Jack

Last name: Mazy

Organization:

Title:

Comments: Restricting the establishment of new routes to "existing climbing opportunities" on non-Wilderness lands is unenforceable and will create confusion amongst land managers and climbers. Non-Wilderness climbing management policy should maintain opportunities for new anchors unless and until analyses determine climbing should be restricted to protect cultural and natural resources.

Please provide constructive suggestions to improve instead of removing and endangering the safety and the legacy of US climbing