

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/18/2024 12:21:23 AM

First name: Lyn

Last name: Larson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We are out of time. Old growth forests are finite and we need them for carbon sequestration, clean water and air, and preservation of species diversity. However you define "old growth" (trunk diameter, age, whatever), I include forests that are 80 years or older. We have plenty of tree farms growing wood for commercial uses. We need to stop cutting old growth, period.