

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/18/2024 5:24:35 PM

First name: Scott

Last name: Robertson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: We cannot continue to log Old Growth forests, period. With less than 3% of the original forests remaining, losing any more would be a crime against future generations. How can we explain to our grandkids that there used to be original forests but we cut them all down? Old Growth trees are a very small fraction of trees that can be logged in the US, please draw a line somewhere!

Thank you,

Scott