

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/18/2024 7:58:05 PM

First name: Matthew

Last name: Tuckerbaum

Organization:

Title:

Comments: To the USFS: I sincerely hope that you will eliminate the logging and sale of old-growth trees on public lands. Old-growth forests are critical to the ongoing health of our environment, and they are essential to protecting our climate and biodiversity. We cannot afford to lose them. I also hope that you will manage our public forests so that we can develop new mature growth areas, as we need to restore much of the old-growth that we've already lost.