

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/20/2024 8:19:35 PM

First name: Terry

Last name: Cannon

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I am writing to support policy to protect Oregon's old and old growth forests from logging under any pretext. This precious resource must be protected from the short term, short sighted interests of commercial logging. There is no shortage of timberland accessible to commercial logging so there is no reason short of greed to allow a few to rob the many, including future generations of the multiple benefits from these magnificent trees.