

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/22/2024 5:16:20 PM

First name: Laura

Last name: Jacoby

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I would like to strongly suggest the USFS does not move forward on banning fixed anchors and bolts on their lands for most importantly the safety of climbers in the outdoors. I fear there will be an avalanche of serious accidents following the bolt ban, and it will greatly inhibit climbing in the outdoors. Please consider other more sustainable options for bolting and anchoring routes before you impose an outright ban which will only lead to accidents and dangerous conditions for climbers. Thank you for the consideration.