Comments: was disconcerted when I heard of plans to expand the Wilderness to include all sorts of modern recreation, including permanent bolts to facilitate technical climbs by novices. It is bad enough there is an auto ad that shows climbers with ice axes climbing at night, I see no need to endanger novice climbers with permanent bolts, or off road paths for forest buggies to get there. The Wilderness must remain pristine as originally intended by the Wilderness Act.

The agencies' primary duty is to protect Wilderness in its natural, untrammeled state, and the Wilderness Act's ban on installations can only be overcome in rare administrative circumstances where the installation is necessary to protect Wilderness in its natural, untrammeled state. Please protect the Wilderness as originally intended.
