

Data Submitted (UTC 11): 1/23/2024 1:02:59 AM

First name: Judy

Last name: Henderson

Organization:

Title:

Comments: I live in an urban area, but I care deeply about preserving Oregon's forest resources.

It's time to manage our national forests in support of their true values - clean air and drinking water and habitat protection for wildlife and human culture and recreation.

We need to protect mature and old-growth forests for maximum climate change mitigation.

And, we can have effective forest management without cutting mature and old-growth trees.

Thank you for consideration of this comment.