Comments: I will make it real simple. This is a stupid idea that comes from people who do not give a damn about wildlife or the land and natural beauty. Just themselves....looking for entertainment. You have no right to do this to nature, to the animals there. What happened to peace and natural forest and beauty? You do not care about what happens in the future... just your own personal fun and games and maybe make a little money.

The hell with the homes of everything there that lives there. I say, the hell with you.
